

Going to a holiday group at The Avenue

Our Holidays groups are held at The Pentecostal Church in Biggleswade. If there is a change to the venue we will have let your parents/carers know.

The church is a cream building with a blue sign down a small lane.

When you arrive you will walk into a large room. It has red carpet, white walls and there are quite a lot of windows. Sometimes there are tables out that will have some information for the grown ups to look through. There is also a storage room, kitchen and toilets.

Your grown up will write down your names on an attendance sheet so we know you have arrived. Sometimes we give you a sticky label with your name on for you to wear so that we can remember your name.

Someone from The Avenue will come and say hello to you. At the holiday group we will be holding fun activities for you to join in. If you just want to watch that's ok as well. Your grown up will always stay with you.

There will be a break to have a drink and biscuit. We like the children to all sit in the middle of the room while they are having their snacks and whilst the grown ups have their hot tea/coffee.

We will start tidying up and putting things away when it is nearly time to go. If you have any questions before you come to our holiday groups you can ask your grown up to email us and we will answer all of your questions.
